PROVINCIAL SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
14th November, 1878.

THE Lieutenant-Governor in Council directs the publication of the following Report of the Royal Commission, appointed to enquire into the allegations made by the Members for Kootenay against the Hon. A. C. Elliott.

By Command.

T. BASIL HUMPHREYS,
Provincial Secretary.

To His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR HONOUR:—

The undersigned Commissioners, appointed by Royal Commission, addressed to them under the Great Seal of the Province of British Columbia, bearing date the 6th day of April, A. D. 1878, have the honour to report—

1. That they met in the Commission Rooms, at the Court House, Victoria, on the 9th day of April last, to make preparations for the discharge of the duties imposed upon them by the Commission.

2. The Commission was then inaugurated, and the course of proceedings settled; and the 13th day of April was appointed for entering upon the examination of witnesses.

3. The Commissioners, at an early stage of the enquiry they were enjoined to make, ascertained that the conduct of it would be left entirely in their hands, untrammelled by instructions or directions of a departmental or other nature.

4. They invited the aid of the Members bringing the accusation (Messrs. Gallagher and Galbraith) in the examination and cross-examination of witnesses, and allowed them, as promoters, the same, indeed greater, latitude in the mode of proceeding than the recognized officers of Courts of Justice are allowed in ordinary judicial investigations; and also gave to Mr. McCreight, Q. C., Counsel for Mr. Attorney-General Elliott, a like latitude for defence.

5. This course appeared to the Commissioners to be just, and in accordance with what they believed to be the wishes of the House of Assembly, as set forth by Your Honour in the Resolution transmitted for the guidance of the Commissioners.

6. Their first public sittings were held in the Court Room, James' Bay, on the 13th day of April, 1878.

7. Notices of each public sitting were regularly sent and delivered to the Attorney-General for the time being, the promoters, and other the parties interested.

8. In the prosecution of the enquiry, the Commissioners first called before them such persons as they had reason to believe could give any information on the subject of it, or otherwise facilitate the investigation, commencing with those in Victoria, especially the accusers and accused.

9. In order to proceed with the greatest possible economy, and lay a proper basis for further enquiry, they called a public sitting and first examined on oath Charles Gallagher, M. P. P., for Kootenay; Robert Leslie Thomas Galbraith, M. P. P., for Kootenay; the Honourable James Trimble, Speaker of the House of Assembly; the Honourable Andrew C. Elliott, Attorney-General; and the Honourable Forbes George Vernon, Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works.

10. From these they obtained the names of such persons residing at Kootenay, or at Walla Walla, in Washington Territory, United States, as would be likely to throw a light upon the subject. The Rev. Father Fouquet, Mr. George Kelly of Kootenay, Mr. George Dacres, of Walla Walla, Washington Territory, and other persons, were named in that behalf.

11. With the object of economy in view, the Commissioners then arranged to despatch carefully framed interrogatories, by sure hand, to Messrs. Fouquet, Kelly, and Dacres, to be answered in writing, in order to ascertain whether the evidence which all or any of these gentlemen could give would be of sufficient importance to warrant the Commissioners in incurring the expense of summoning them from such remote portions of the Province to Victoria.

12. On receipt of the answers to the interrogatories, and on ascertaining the importance of their testimony, the Commissioners drew from the Public Treasury, in accordance with the understanding mentioned in paragraph 3, and in the form specially prescribed by the Treasury, the sum, from all sources, of $1,100 on account of the $2,000 voted for the enquiry by the House.

13. Summonses were then sent to the Rev. Father Leon Fouquet, George Alonzo Kelly, and George Dacres; and requisition was made on the Local Government to provide the further funds necessary to conduct the enquiry effectively to a conclusion.

14. In the interval, a new House having been summoned and a change of Government having taken place, and the House having re-voted the balance unexpended of the $2,000 devoted to the enquiry, the Commission resumed its labours.

15. Besides the witnesses present in Victoria, all persons who could throw the most light on the special charge under investigation were examined as soon as the great distances between Victoria and Kootenay and Walla Walla would permit, viz.: George Alonzo Kelly, on 5th of July; Rev. Father Fouquet, on 30th of August; and George Dacres, on 18th September.

16. Numerous private sittings of the Commission were necessarily held, to make all the proper arrangements from time to time for its conduct, and prepare interrogatories, and otherwise direct its proceedings to a definite issue.

17. The Commission closed its sittings for taking evidence—including the inaugural sitting, six in number—on the 18th of September.

18. All the sittings for taking evidence were public and open, and accommodation was provided for reporters of the public press.

19. The Commissioners have endeavoured, in obedience to the requirements of the Commission, to obtain from the witnesses all the evidence pertinent to the subject matter of the enquiry which they were able to give.

20. This evidence is contained in the depositions—eight in number—and in certain documents annexed to this report, or sent herewith.

21. From an examination and consideration of the whole evidence, and of the bearing and manner of the witnesses, the Commissioners are of opinion—

That the then Leader of the Government, the Hon. Andrew C. Elliott, did not offer Mr. Gallagher $1,000 and the Government constablenesship filled by George A. Kelly, worth $1,400 a year, and inside of three months the best position in the gift of the Government.

But that he did by letter, bearing date the 16th of July, 1877, to and through the Rev. Father Fouquet, intimate to Mr. Gallagher that he might have the constablenesship at Kootenay in case he determined to resign his seat, and Mr. Kelly resign the constablenesship. It is to be remembered that Mr. Kelly would be obliged to resign his office before he could present himself to the constituency.—Constitution Act, 1871, Section 10.

That Mr. Elliott was actuated by no corrupt or improper motive in making such offer. But in view of the unusual channel adopted by the Leader of the Government for communicating with Mr. Gallagher, a Member of the Opposition, and of the further direct offer by Mr. Kelly of $1,000 to Mr. Gallagher to induce him to resign his seat, and from the public manner in which that offer was spoken of and commented on at Kootenay by Mr. Kelly and others, we think that the two Kootenay representatives, Messrs. Gallagher and Galbraith, apparently had grounds for the impression under which they acted, and for a conscientious belief in the truth of the allegations which they made in their places in the House, and which culminated in the charge under investigation.

22. The Commissioners append a statement of the sums expended by them, with the vouchers annexed, shewing a balance remaining in their hands, and beg to enclose a cheque for $131 53, the amount thereof. It will be observed that, in the statement of sums expended, the Commissioners have taken no credit for any allowances for their own services. The balance of $131 53 is, of course, quite inadequate to defray these, at least on the scale hitherto allowed in the Province, as in the several other Commissions issued here during the last few years.

All of which is respectfully submitted.
